Report on Preparation for GPAT 2017

The final year students have put forth a suggestion to Dr. Inamdar (Academic in-charge) regarding the need of preparation for GPAT examination and such possibility with joining of new teaching staff in the college. Hence the course of Preparation for GPAT 2017 was initiated. For this the Academy for NIPER aspirants was invited as the participating organization. Dr. Mahesh Kale and Dr. MachhindraBochare conveyed their willingness to take part in such activity and accepted the invitation. As per the mutual understanding, the teaching sessions were conducted by the experts at the Academy as Dr. Mahesh Kale and Dr. MachhindraBochareas well as by Dr. Inamdar, Professor, GCOP, Amravati.

The sessions were started from 3 August 2016. It continued till 18 November 2016. In this span, twenty teaching sessions each of one hour or more were conducted by the teaching experts from the academy as well as by Dr. Inamdar, Professor Government College of Pharmacy, Amravati. The sessions were held on every First and Third Saturdays, Sundays of month (9 AM to 11AM) and weekdays (on 5.30 PM to 6.30 PM, with advance communication). Apart from this, eleven tests of MCQs were administered on Sundays. The students appeared for GPAT 2017 on 28 and 29 January 2017.

The result was declared on 8 Feb 2017. Thirteen students qualified the examination of GPAT. These students later took admissions for higher studies .i.e postgraduation in pharmacy.
